是更具体、更平常的。

the articles read, the notes taken, the words learnt.
And a pencil mark, a typeface, a digital flash, the pixel white or the pixel black.
And the pictures seen, the photos taken, or a video.
And what are you thinking about, how do you feel.
And when you talked about something unimportant,
and I think I forgot, but it took us half an hour.
And something even less important, and we chatted. I dreamt about a piece of that, pieced with some other pieces that someone else mentioned, and I forgot as I woke up like I did yesterday and a day and other days before.
And it’s about an apple and a cucumber, the withered cucumber butt. How could that make someone intellectual.
It does/does not matter.
