

总是以沉默开始 也没什么不好

I?

you?

engage

we join

piece

together

physically joint

I can't decipher

I dump them into a

plate

on the floor like that placed

I don't believe

so I look around

thing

and

thing

I don't know

I sense that in some ways

I can't read the symbols

I ~~decide~~ describe

I don't know

where they are yet it's absurd.

I think it's different

they're one thing

ONE

THING

way more clearly installation they're not like little paintings so I have a question

how they function

fiction

A joke.

The wall falls down.

We will come to wat those.

You know, that's the reward.

formal

magical

fictional

You've found things in it that is tactile(lly) interesting

It could be any space

every

They're different

what do you want to say

I see what makes it

what brings you to that the basic form

DOVE

to join them

literally

a fantasy

They would not do what you want them to do.

I would forward the chain of disagreement.

the paper, the pre-standard paper the geometric specific.

Let's do an experiment

Hold up your hands

block off the wall

so you see

block off the color

the top corner

put your thumb on the little piece at the corner

does it change?

whatever the waffleness is nice.

u c, you take what you need.

I'm trying to ignore people in the room.

We haven't talk about the piece on the ceiling.

What?

Is that a piece?

Do Yilan have to?

How you grant that to be a part of the work?

Do Yilan need that?

The author's position

So what do you think?

why do you stop recognizing that it's Yilan's studio?

Actually never mind.
Should I push it back?

leave paintings to be the _____ they need recognize to be

responsibility is being able to respond

He made that case.

they try to conclude it, a grand conclusion to hold everything together.

Do they have to fit into the wall?
How do you think about the piece on the floor?
They can go anywhere,

Isn't that good?

又是讲故事的时间。

the wizard of the Oz and the color descend
it's a fantasy
it goes from b&w
and suddenly there's color so where the piece ends?

I'm standing here the peripheral edge of the floor is where the piece ends, the painting. no

the works end

Yes, you can't paint my painting for me.

it's the illusion of what's happening the perspective of the space I would consider the overall space.

OK.

so what does that mean?

the bowties

I mean

they're cousins

or something.

the corner summarized

you get the corner

the corner

the corner again

space

corner

site-specific

how you pay attention

intuitive

or rational

地上的阿米巴虫

they have a surface

almost like a painting

atomistic

I can't name that

What's your intension?

What do you think?

a mystery

or a problem

you know where to start, but know not where to end.

it comes to be knowable in the binary

no
