

the pre-requisites for a work of art to be 'self-explanatory'
'self-evident'

that it is

it was made

there are

I am

you are

we do

do we need to

do we have to

but how?

maybe it's not 'self-'
unavoidably.

need to be seen (by others)
to know (oneself)

究竟是不是‘一个人的故事’？

是否终将走向他人

是否终将走进世界

茧

总是会破的吗？

so how a work of art stands in this world?

in relation

a time of theirs

how to be timeless?

does it have to be?

is it?

isn't

we lose something, of course

we take what, whatever

we need

understand?

understand?

but we are, all are, contemporaneous

what holds us

what we share
